

ALTC Connect: How to get funding from the Australian Learning & Teaching Council

ALTC Scheme	Funding Available	Internal Timelines	Who Can Apply? What Is The ALTC Looking For?
Discipline Scholars	Up to $225,000	18 September 2009	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Senior academics who have strong links across their discipline &amp; a strong commitment to teaching and learning.</li> <li>One year secondment (part time available)</li> <li>Discipline scholars will be expected to further the teaching and learning agenda within their discipline nationally and internationally.</li> </ul>
Grants <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Competitive Grants (CG)</li> <li>Priority Projects (PP)</li> <li>Leadership Program (LP)</li> </ul>	Up to $220,000	15 October 2009 –CG Early 2010 for PP & LP grant schemes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Funding available for teaching and learning initiatives that link to ALTC's priorities.</li> <li>Unique, collaborative projects that will benefit the wider higher education sector, either within your discipline or beyond.</li> </ul>
Fellowships <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>National Teaching Fellowship (NTF)</li> <li>Teaching Fellowship (TF)</li> </ul>	NTF: Up to $350,000 TF: Up to $100,000	February 2010	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Increasingly competitive; applicants Senior Lecturer or above, with a strong national profile in teaching &amp; learning.</li> <li>NTF: one year of engagement over 18 months</li> <li>TF: three months of engagement over one year</li> <li>Successful applicants will undertake strategic, high profile fellowship activities in areas that support the enhancement of learning and teaching in Australian higher education.</li> </ul>
Awards <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Teaching Excellence</li> <li>Programs that Enhance Learning</li> <li>Citations</li> </ul>	Teaching: $25,000 Program: $25,000 Citation: $10,000	February 2010	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>ALTC award nominees are selected from the University's internal awards for teaching and service.</li> <li>Teaching: Academics who have taught at the University for at least two years, outstanding on all five criteria.</li> <li>Program: Academics and/or professional staff responsible for sustained projects or services relating to teaching and learning.</li> <li>Citations: Academics and/or professional staff who have made a sustained contribution to the student experience.</li> </ul>

The CSHE will gladly assist University staff in the preparation of their applications. Further information available at: www.cshe.unimelb.edu.au/resources/carrick.html or contact Claire Jennings 8344-7577 / clairej@unimelb.edu.au